

Group Class Info Sheet

Group classes provide the perfect environment for learning new behaviors and proofing established behavior. Your dog will have a chance to learn, and practice, self-control even in the presence of other dogs and people and help develop your dog's social skills. Group classes help you learn to work with your dog to keep their attention in a new place and with distractions.

Classes will be at 1220 Weil Street, Suite #4, Billings, MT.

Reminder: Only feed your dog half of his meal prior to class session.

If any questions or special requests, please don't hesitate to call at (406) 679-3826.

- If dogs do sniff each other, allow max 3 seconds, and then redirect with voice before leash gets tight.

WHAT TO BRING

- 3 different types of treats. Ex.: kibble, small soft and stinky training treats, boiled chicken, or hotdogs cut into small pea-sized pieces. Lots of them. Remember, your dog will learn to work through distractions and be rewarded for doing so, so make ensure your treats are more valuable and interesting that the surroundings.
- Bully stick, stuffed Kong toy or good natural chew bone. No rawhides. No Nylon bones. This is something for your dog to chew on during talks and breaks, thus encouraging him to settle.
- Only flat buckle collar or harness allowed on dog in class. No exception!
- A 6 ft leash. No retractable leashes allowed.
- Mat/towel/dog bed. Something the dog can settle on. This will be very helpful for you, when going places with your dog, and he already has learned a nice settle behavior on the mat.
